COMPARATIVE STRENGTH

The results of the Kamas and Missouri games neat Saturday should furnish the first real relative strength of the two teams. Kamsas meets Ames at Lawrence and Missouri meets Drake at Des Moines. Kamsas must defeat the Iowa Aggies by a decided score if it is to be reckoned by Valley football followers as a formidable foe for the powerful Tigers to meet Thanksgiving day. Likewise it js up to the Missouri eleven to beat Drake by a loval rooters of the Sooners who have Kansas was only able to come out on the one trip together this fall. They "passed long end of a 7 to 3 score against the up" St. Louis this week so that they might

"Most people do not realize it, but if footbell equipment has advanced in price just like everything else," Z. G. Clevenger told a bystander as he watched football practice the otiler afternoon. "Four years ago," he continued, "a football player could be outfitted for $15. Today the same equipment costs $40. There are about forty men out for Varsity football and each one of these will probably use two uniforms during the season.

"Scouting is another big item in figureral of their best men out of the game in hopes that they will be in the best shape to play against Missouri. The coaching staff at Drake it is said is pointing their eleven toward the Missouri game which they consider the big game of the season. If this is true the scores of the Drake games played so far this season do not represent the real strength of the lowa team and Missouri may find Drake to be a yeare difficult for to conquer than
